

Regarding Sinclair's
intention to broadcast the Kerry
"documentary" --
whatever happened to the Fairness
Doctrine? Are there to be absolutely no
constraints on the owners of giant
media organizations
who would use their franchise on the public airwaves to promote their
presidential choice?

This surely was not
what the Founding Fathers had in mind
when they wrote the
guarantee of a free
press into the Bill of Rights.
